EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP 5-Pin's

RULES

Art. 1. GENERAL RULES

- a) The European Championship 5-Pins Single will be organized with 16 participants in order to minimize the organizing cost and allow all the European Federations to organize the event.
- b) The aim is to have one event every two years.
- c) The tournament will start on Friday evening with the draw lots and will last till Sunday evening.
- d) The tournament will be played on a minimum number of four billiard tables.
- e) The organizing Federation is responsible for the organizational costs (tournament place, billiard tables, referees, etc.) plus the daily fees to the sportsmen.

Art. 2. PARTICIPANTS

The European Championship 5-Pins Single will be organized with 16 participants.

These are:

- a) The titleholder, with no consideration for his nationality, in so far as the winning of the title is not longer than 4 years ago.
- b) One representative from each of the affiliated Federations, which are allowed to participate
- c) One sportsman who will be determined by the organizing federation.
- d) Remaining places following the European National Teams Ranking (one place for nation).

If a federation can not replace a weakness of a participant, this place will be occupied by a sportsman of the organizing federation.

Art. 3. PLAYING SYSTEM - DISTANCES – BREAK

GROUPS

- a) The eliminator round is played in 4 groups of 4 sportsmen, in each group everyone is playing against everyone.
- b) Concerning the making of the groups they will be made by drawing lots, splitting sportsmen of the same nationality in different groups.
In the groups on eis playing as follows:
 - 1 – 4 and 2 – 3
 - Winner – winner and loser - loser
 - The remaining gamesIn case there are two or more sportsmen in the same group those will have to play first against each other.
The groups A and B as well as the groups C and D will play at the same time.
- c) If a sportsman is not present at a game his opponent will receive 1 match point and 3-0 set points. The sportsman has to be ready to play ten minutes before the beginning of his match otherwise he is losing the right to test the material.

EOR APPENDIX 14

- d) The organizer will give the persons involved a timetable at the beginning of the event. The sportsmen have to be at disposal ready to play in the tournament hall at the times given therein. Otherwise their right to participate is expiring.
- e) Between two matches coming after each other the sportsman shall have at least a break of 15 minutes. (Article 7004, paragraph 2 and article 7005 paragraph 1/2 of the EOR)
- f) After the games in the groups the two first of each group will play further in the final round according to the KO-system.

GAMES

- a) The set system is applied.
- b) In the groups one will play three winning sets (best of 5)
- c) The distance of one set is amounting to 50 points.
- d) Before the beginning of the match one will determine by means of the cushion decision which sportsmen is starting. The winner of the cushion decision determines who is starting with the first set. That one is also starting the sets 3, 5 and eventually the set 7, the opponent has in set 2 4 and eventually the set 6 the first stroke. The sportsman who is starting the 1st set is always starting with the pure white ball and is keeping this one during the whole match.
- e) The sportsmen do have the right to make a break of about 5 minutes after the 2nd and the 4th set. Within the framework of public interest (television) the organizer is allowed to extend the break or to also make a break between other sets.

Art. 4. RANKINGS AFTER THE GAMES OF THE GROUPS

The places 1 – 4 are received by the winners of the groups.

The places 5 – 8 by the sportsmen who are second in the groups

The places 9 – 12 by the sportsmen who are third in the groups

The places 13 – 16 by the sportsmen who are fourth in the groups

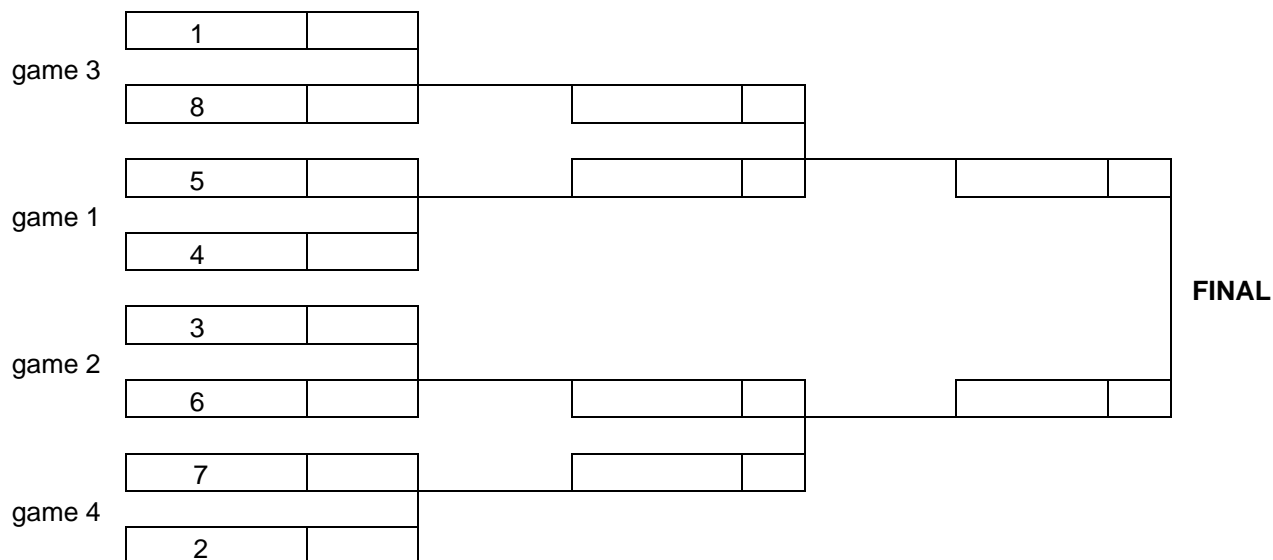

Procedure in order to classify sportsmen

- a) Total number of match points achieved
- b) In case of “drawn” among two sportsmen, the direct encounter will decide.
With more then two sportsmen the last will be determined with the following criteria:
 - 1) Set points (highest positively difference between winning and losing sets)
 - 2) Average of the sportsmen involved (3 positions after the point, rounding down)For the remaining two the direct encounter will be valued.

EUR APPENDIX 14

Art. 5. KO-ENCOUNTERS

a) The first 8 sportsmen qualified from the eliminator round will play the following encounters:

The set system is applied.
 One will play four winning sets (best of 7).
 The distance of one set is amounting to 50 points.

Art. 6. SPORT SUPPORTING PRIZES

Sport supporting prizes will not be compensated.

Art. 7. TRAVEL EXPENSES

Travel expenses will not be compensated.

Art. 8. DAILY REIMBURSEMENTS

Each sportsman will receive Euro 150,00 a day for each playing day plus one.

Art. 9. PAYING OUT OF THE DAILY REIMBURSEMENTS

a) At the receipt of their reimbursements, the sportsmen bind themselves in writing to liberate the organizer from any tax- and social insurance-obligations which possibly could arise concerning these earnings. Should the tax laws of the organizing country conclusively prescribe the deduction of tax in case of direct paying out to the sportsman by the paying organizer (in some countries 10 up to 35 % of the sport supporting price) this can be deducted from the reimbursement. One has to inform about that in the invitation. The sportsman has to receive a corresponding written confirmation about the tax payment. In case of payment to the federations or engaged companies the tax deduction is inapplicable since those do not have any personal liability to pay tax like individual sportsmen have.

- b) The daily reimbursements have to be given to the sportsmen before the beginning of the second day.
- c) The daily reimbursements have to be paid out in Euro.

Art. 10. ORGANIZER FEE

An organizer fee (currently 1.500,00 €) has to be paid according to annex 2 of the statutes of the CEB. The organizing national federation is legally responsible for that. The fee have to be paid after receipt of the invoice from CEB.
